Change in Procedure - Unit Price

1. Reference is made to Handbook of Financial and Accounting Procedures For Property, dated 1 December 1953.

25X1 2. Price variations based on different degrees of [ ] as currently reflected on the stock status records, are based on the concept of "the higher the [ ] the higher the cost".
25X1 Current procurement of [ ] items indicates this is no longer a true situation.

25X1 3. Inasmuch as [ ] does not necessarily have a direct relationship to price, and in the interest of simplification of property and financial accounting procedures, this Office proposes to utilize a single price for items of supply and equipment, regardless of the [ ] classification.

4. Comments or concurrence of your Office is requested.
